		--	--	copacabana	check time zone for bolivia ... forward one hour?	You have to take a ferry there and passengers aren't allowed on the ferry with the bus. Just follow the locals and make a note of the license plate number of the bus so you can pick it up on the other side. You need to be careful when you disembark at La Paz, thieves favor this area around Cementario. Even better, get off the bus beforehand, it will certainly stop in front of the old train station, it's a shorter walk to the center.
